SONOMA ROAD DELEGATION BEFORE SUPERVISORS

Join With Santa Rosas In Effort to Get Action on State Highway Through This Valley.

The Supervisors in session at Santa Rosa were paid a visit from a representative delegation of Sonoma Valley road boosters Wednesday who went up to see what could be done in the matter of speeding up the Highway Commission to build the Schellville-Santa Rosa road. The plan of the county buying the state highway bonds was presented and the Supervisors appeared to favor it provided that Healdsburg was also considered and the Highway Commission would guarantee that the purchase by Sonoma county of the bonds would mean immediate action in this section. Sonoma Valley would welcome the completion of any and all state highway in the county and so assured Supervisor Goddard of Healdsburg and his conferees.

B. M. Levy of the Auto Association talked over the phone to the chairman of the state Commission at Sacramento about the plan and asked for some assurance before the Supervisors acted on the purchase of the bonds. The Commission's reply was vague in that he sent the message that no thought of doing work here was under consideration at the present time and he would give no definite promise of action.

The Sonoma delegation upon hearing this decided that the matter should be taken up directly at Sacramento, and with a committee of prominent citizens from other parts of the county will urge the State Highway Commission to give us assurance that the road will be built at once if Sonoma county buys the bonds.

A meeting at Sacramento with the Highway Commission has been arranged for Wednesday next. A delegation from Sonoma County will attend and the entire matter of putting through the Schellville-Santa Rosa road will be talked over.

DOW EXPLAINS FARM CENTER LETTER

Reply to Road Foreman, Helberg Based on Personal Experience.

Sonoma Index-Tribune, Sonoma, Cal., Dear Editor:

In your valued paper dated May 8, 1920, under the caption of "Road Foreman Helberg Answers Critics", appeared an article replying to the letter sent by the Sonoma Farm Center Resolutions Committee to County Engineer Aldrich in regard to the bad condition of our roads. I was surprised and pained at the attitude of our Road Foreman, who is a good friend and neighbor of mine, has taken in this matter. I am sure I can speak for the Sonoma Farm Center Resolutions Committee and the Farm Center as a body when I say we had no intention of treading on any one's toes or feelings, and that it certainly never occurred to any of us that Road Foreman should take offense at an article written in a kindly spirit to another party. This committee investigated the matter carefully before writing this letter and learned that our Road Foreman receives daily orders from and makes daily reports to the County Engineer and we therefore felt that the latter was entirely responsible for the upkeep of our roads and should be the proper party with whom to confer.

As Vice-Director of the Sonoma Farm Center and a member of the above mentioned Committee I kindly request you to publish this reply to our Road Foreman's statements.

First, The Vineburg to Schellville Road complaint did not have to do with the old road, but very largely with where the road was rebuilt about five months ago from the north-east corner of the former J. Koeborn place to the south line of the former Wm. Helberg place. Very coarse gravel with a generous quantity of stones several inches deep was first graded up, making the road much like a creek bed. After a few weeks enough dirt was scraped up to make a slippery mud in rainy weather, but not enough to cover the stones. We are still bumping over the tops of the stones. There is a good foundation for a road, but it has never been finished and will not get in good condition by itself.

A few years ago while traveling from one end of the state to the other while the State Highway was under construction the writer was compelled to make many detours. In every case there was a sign reading, "Dangerous but Passable." Many of these detours would compare very favorably in riding qualities with this road as being "In Good Condition."

In fact this road is in such wretched condition that when the County teams were hauling gravel to a point further north two or three months ago they made a detour along the east side of this road, but on the County Right of Way, rather than bump over the stones. This detour is now getting at least 50 per cent of the travel as it is much smoother than the new road, but it would not be suitable for wet weather.

The only place where the railroad right of way is traveled between Vineburg and Schellville for a distance of about 300 feet south of Vineburg station. The new County Road is in such abominable condition for travel at this point that every one prefers bumping over the stones and boulders on the right of way to making an attempt to use the County Road.

If any reader is in doubt about the truth of these statements, he is cordially invited to call upon me any evening or Sunday afternoon and I will gladly take him for a "Joy Ride" over this road. I feel sure that after such a ride he will agree with me that driving over at once or twice a day for five months would take the joy out of life.

Second, No mention is made of the boulders which are imbedded in various parts of our roads protruding from one to four inches. These stones are very destructive to the tires of every automobile passing over them. Beginning at a point about 300 feet south of Vineburg station and where the travel leaves the railroad right of way and enters the County road and ending at a point about one-half mile south of Vineburg several such stones may be found. Between John Guibergia's and Chas. Ramelli's ranches southwest of Sonoma and again in the vicinity of Peter Hansen's and R. J. Dowdall's ranches northwest of El Verano a goodly assortment of these stones may be found. A few may be found on other roads in the valley, but the cost of removing all of them would be very small.

Third, Another point not mentioned is the practice of raking the loose stones and boulders back on to our roads repeatedly. These loose stones never become a part of the road. What good are they, rain or no rain? I presume some readers will think that I am crazy on the subject of stones and boulders. If they saw 60 miles of them daily they might be af-

WINE JELLY RED AND WHITE TO BE MADE AT ASTI

Much interest has attended the announcement that the men who recently took over the Asti vineyards are to use the immense crop of grapes from hundreds of acres of vines, which heretofore have made some of the most noted wines of California, for the making of wine jelly. In addition to forming a most palatable dessert, it is said that the addition of a little water to some of the jelly will make a most delicious grape juice. Such was the word that came from northern Sonoma county Saturday.

It was also stated that in addition to the huge buildings at the Asti Vineyards, the company will use the old Cloverdale Winery as one of its manufacturing plants.

It is stated that this wine jelly will be made in two colors, white and red. For many years white and red have been the colors of the famous vintage made at Asti, one of Sonoma county's most picturesque show places.

E. A. Rossi, formerly manager of the California Wine Association has resigned that position and is organizing the California Fruit Products Co., according to an announcement he made recently at Cloverdale. The company has taken over the Asti's big plant as well as the Cloverdale winery and will provide a fine market for all grapes grown in northern Sonoma county. Rossi says that he will leave for the East May 10 to make arrangements for the machinery necessary to manufacture the grape products which in addition to the jellies will include grape syrup and grape juice.

CREAMERY'S GOOD BOOST FOR VALLEY OF THE MOON

The Mission Creamery is going to help advertise Sonoma Valley by adopting a new trade label for its butter and cheese. The Sonoma Creamery products will be known as Valley of the Moon brand and the wide sale which the butter and Monterey cheese has in San Francisco and other markets will be of great value in spreading the fame of this section of California. The new label is an attractive one designed specially by San Francisco artists.

Due to the fact that I travel these roads daily, and therefore have a personal knowledge of the worst features I brought the matter before the Farm Center Meeting held April 16.

We are glad to note that as a result of the visit of the County Engineer when he came to look over our roads last week that work has now begun on East Napa street.

THE SONOMA FARM CENTER is an organization composed of representative people of the Valley and every resident is not only eligible for membership, but is urged to join. Its aim, primarily, is to help out the farmer and make this valley a better place in which to live, work and play.

R. A. DOW,
Vice-Director,
Sonoma Farm Center.

PETALUMA PIRATES "GOT THEIRS" IN EARLY DAYS

Verily History Repeats Itself. Design on Sonoma Valley Is Apparently of Old Origin.

That history repeats itself seems a true axiom for now come stories to the effect that Petaluma has had designs on the rich valley of Sonoma as far back as the early sixties. Pioneer families recall that in days gone by their fathers told how the appearance of mysterious surveyors along Sonoma creek excited their suspicion and curiosity so they made bold to ask them their mission in the valley. The surveyors replied that Petaluma township was intending to extend to Sonoma creek its boundary lines from the ridge of hills which had always been the natural dividing line between Petaluma and Sonoma. When the old settlers heard of the plot they promptly got together and indignation meetings resulted in several stalwart leaders approaching the surveyors one day, confiscating their chains, folding up all their paraphernalia and telling them quietly but determinedly to go back across the hills where they came from and to never again put in an appearance in this valley.

There must have been considerable primitive pep in the edit for nothing was ever heard of the Petaluma plan from that day to the present time when lo and behold it stalks again like Banquo's ghost. Petaluma has petitions out to form a new county and to include in its territory all of Sonoma valley from Sonoma creek to Schellville. The town of Sonoma and the summer resort section is to be left in the present county.

Although Petaluma claims to have received encouragement over this way in some sections of the valley, favorable sentiment is not apparent locally and at a meeting of the Native Sons here recently, a straw vote taken among the members who reside in different parts of the Valley was so decidedly against county division that resolutions against such a move were deemed unnecessary.

At Vineburg Wednesday night although about 40 men and women of that part of the valley gathered at the theatre to hear H. W. Kerrigan and Homer Wood on the good points of seceding from the rest of the valley, the spell binders were not convincing and the sentiment was plainly against Petaluma's invitation to come in. Pointed questions were asked by the Sonoma Valley folks, one of which was—what the chances of escaping the Petaluma octopus was in the event that the deleted section of Sonoma Valley wanted to continue existence as already geographically placed. Petaluma's answer was that an opposing petition signed by 50 per cent of the residents of the part of the valley to be included might gain for the coveted section the right of self determination. Among those who spoke at the Vineburg meeting were Messrs Dow, Cutter, Specht, Watt and Morris Levy. Mr. Levy was one of three who seemed to favor the plan to align with Petaluma.

FELLOW CITIZENS BRAND A LIE AND MAKE DEFAMERS PAY

If there is as much truth in the rest of the pack of lies being prepared by the recallers to "get" District Attorney Hoye as there is in the dastardly statements concerning moral conditions in Sonoma Valley, it is obvious that his calumniators are depending upon crude fabrication to deceive the public and win their point.

It has gone far enough. This constant defamation of character to which the Valley of the Moon is being subjected by reformers and self-seeking moralists among which we are ashamed to state there are local posers who either from ignorance or willfully are traitors enough to join in the blasphemy of their own fair section.

When a leading county paper like the Republican makes bold to quote E. D. Seaton, a member of the 1919 Grand Jury, as follows, it is time that Sonoma Valley manifested some concern. "Seaton said that 23 prostitutes are living in one valley resort at the present and that effort is being made to restrict their activities." From whom did you get this slanderous information, Mr. Seaton?—You were in Sonoma and your cronies are known. Where is this vileness Mr. Seaton? We demand that you prove your monstrous charge. Who is making the effort "to restrict their activities"? Not the constituted authorities. The deputy sheriff of this section declares that the statement is false in every particular. No such conditions as Seaton maintains exists and the "restriction of activity" is entirely unknown to the Sheriff's office or its vigilant deputy Joe Ryan. A lie pure and simple is this statement from an ex-Grand Juror spread broadcast through a County seat paper—a lie over whose telling some of the local saintly actually chuckle with satisfaction and rub their hands.

In the old days the people of a community thus maligned would rid Seaton's kind out on a rail and with him would go first of all the hom traitors who are parties to such despicable falsehood and all because under the banner of present day reforms they march about ten pretender to one honest uplifter. Some of these local "Pharisees" are of the most dangerous order and have the ear of self appointed moral elders who take their word for gospel truth and do not hesitate to disseminate it with all the dregs just as it comes from the bilge water fountain head.

As a result Sonoma Valley must fight its traducers. Every home dweller here should give the lie to the damnable statements being made concerning Sonoma Valley and force professional defamers to acknowledge their perjury with humility or find another locality in which to reside.

THERE IS TALK of the recall being recalled and it is to be hoped that it is more than talk, for with the ludicrous performances being pulled off by the recallers in every nook and corner of the county, the recrimination and disrespect for authority which is the result of the attack it is high time for Sonoma county to call a halt. Such spite, spleen, and spattering of epithets neither builds roads or character for a county and its people. There has been no criminality. The Reams act appointee is doing all the work he can take care of, and Sonoma tax payers are only interested in road results. The interposing of a recall election to engender long lived bitterness is in poor taste and turns Progress with hand to her ears and eyes downcast from our doors. Sonoma county should not permit it for another moment.

"DRY ACT LOST" was the heading in a Wednesday paper. Does anyone imagine that there would be copious tears shed over that loss? Not in California we'd say after the vote on two amendments still fresh in our memory.

NEW COUNTY PETITION OUT SAYS COURIER

The new county petition will be out Monday. Boost for Petaluma county and sign the petition. Do not sign unless you are on the new great register recently printed. The matter of getting signatures is in the hands of Secretary Kerrigan of the Chamber of Commerce.

If Petaluma succeeds in this undertaking we will have a new county in about eight months. The boundary lines have been finally determined by the Committee of Fifteen and the petition is ready for signatures. The determination of the boundaries has been a delicate task and it has been considered necessary and proper to feel out the sentiment in different places. The Committee of Fifteen has not desired to include any territory against the will of the people included therein.

In order to now proceed and test the constitutionality of the present county division law, it is necessary to secure the signatures of fifty per cent of the registered voters of the territory to be included in the proposed county.—Petaluma Courier.

SENATOR PHELAN URGES MORE REFRIGERATOR CARS

Senator James D. Phelan is daily urging Interstate Commerce Commission officials and railroad officials to rush refrigerator cars to California to move the citrus, fruit, vegetable and melon crops, which begin to move out of the State May 20th.

The recent railroad strike disorganized traffic conditions so that it is extremely difficult to move refrigerator cars westward. In addition to this trouble, the railroads are short nearly 20,000 refrigerator cars. Senator Phelan was assured today by officials of the American Railroad Association that, everything possible is being done by the California Railroads to provide the cars. There is delay in returning empty cars to California from the East on account of the strike. Interstate Commerce Commission officials informed Senator Phelan that every effort is being made to improve the situation and take care of the new crops, but on account of the car shortage and the recent strike the situation is critical but Senator Phelan hopes that it will soon improve.

WINE MAY GO TO $1.00

Within the last few days some of the Cloverdale winemakers have refused 50 cents a gallon for their wine of last year's vintage. Last year's vintage was a superior article and they say indications are that it will go to a dollar a gallon.—Cloverdale Reveille.

THE VILLAIN STILL PURSUES 'EM

The villain still (one of those contraptions by which distillation is effected and which produces high proof liquid kick) pursues 'em—yes them revenue pussy footers still believe that a still is in existence in the vicinity of Sonoma, and this week they stole silently into the cheerful precincts of a perfect day and proceeded to turn everything topsy turvy to uncover the illicit treasure. First they had a hunch that it was up Glen Ellen way, then they got a tip that it was back of Caliente canyon; then they rushed to peaceful Vineburg pursuing every possible clue, verily like a fire engine crew rushing toward the fire flamed sky which the sunset painted or the woman rushing out of the house to match some ribbon by the rainbow.

Curses! No results, sans hope, sans grappa, sans stew pan. Have a heart enforcement crew. Perhaps we can help you. It pays to advertise, so here goes. Wanted—Any information which will lead to the locating of a still in Sonoma Valley. Please bring samples and high proof to this office. Strictly confidential. If the Jackass brandy is up to standard you will be in line for a Governor Edwards cabinet appointment or the bastille, all depending upon the outcome of the Supreme court on the Volstead act. Remember—strictly confidential. We want to aid in clearing up the cloud on our title of Valley of the Moon about which the hazy misnomer Valley of the Moonshine hovers like the persistent spirit of a departed Barleycorn.

WATER SELLERS NOT HELD

Stropini and Loverora who victimized a local resort keeper by selling a barrel of perfectly good water for $525 were not held to answer as the complaining witness might have incriminated himself by testifying against them. As he was not disposed to do so District Attorney Hoye decided that no case could be made out against the duo who peddled water for whiskey. The money which was recovered by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan was returned to the purchaser of the kickless kick.

Mrs. Archie Gale underwent a capital operation at the hospital Saturday last but is reported doing nicely. Mrs. Gale is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Dowdall and her return home is eagerly looked forward to by her family and many friends.

TOMATO PLANTING STARTED

Tomato planting has been started in some sections of the county and next week planting will be in full blast. Ground has been prepared and is said to be in fine shape to receive the young plants.

It is stated that smaller acreage of tomatoes this year is probable. This is said to be mainly accounted for in the fact that the price offered is $3.50 per ton less this year. Last year $20 a ton was offered, while the price this year is $16.50.

SERVING SENTENCE ON WAR TIME CONVICTION

Mrs. Emma Fetter has begun to serve her commuted sentence of one month for violation of the war time prohibition act.

Her conviction was the result of testimony given by navy men and Mrs. Duffy Lewis and followed a wine party arranged by Mrs. Lewis for her friends from Mare Island. The Fetter claimed that Mrs. Lewis who had been a good customer and former friend jobbed them. The Mare Island boys and the band were guests there during the war. Following one of these affairs the troubles arose, which led to the conviction of Mrs. Fetter, proprietor of the big resort.

BERETTA A GOOD ROAD BOOSTER

City Trustee Angelo Beretta who recently returned from a tour of the south down to the Mexican line is more than ever convinced that Sonoma must get in line with modern localities and their advantage from good roads. Mr. Beretta is electioneering for Sonoma's coming street bond election and has faith that it will carry.

Mr. Beretta followed good roads and also the high cost of living clear over to Tia Juana. In the Mexican oasis Angelo paid as high as 75 cents a drink for the same stuff he used to sell for 10 cents a glass and 50 cents a pint for beer. He says you have to look like ready money to get any service down there.

Beretta had fine motorist's luck and returned from his trip with Sonoma air still in his tires. He is now very busy calling on customers of the Sonoma Ice and Beverage Company of which he is secretary.

WOMANS CLUB MEETING

SEBASTOPOL HIGH SCHOOL TROUBLE

A demonstrative crowd of 250 people gathered on the high school grounds to voice protest against the suspension of two school students, editor and business manager of the high school paper, and to demand retention of B. G. Nason and Rebecca Nason as teachers in the high school.

The demonstration, which was held coincidentally with a private meeting of the school trustees, resulted in reinstatement of the two pupils, Homer Thomas, editor of the "Analyst," and Don Walker, business manager of the paper. It is also resulted in a tentative arrangement whereby Mr. and Mrs. Nason may be retained in the high school, the former as vice principal.

The boys had interfered in the appointment of a principal for the school, taking Nason's part. The outgoing principal, Mr. Hull and his successor Mr. Martin, clashed with Nason and when the students wrote an article favoring him the trouble started. Nason's wife is a sister of Mrs. R. P. Hill of Eldridge.

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Mrs. Norre and family, and Mrs. McBride, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell of the Baxter tract are visiting at the home of their parents. Mrs. McBride has just left a hospital where she has been quite ill.

Mrs. L. L. Lewis, formerly of El Verano and who sold her ranch and country home there some months ago, has located in Piedmont where she purchased an attractive residence. Her daughter, Mrs. Edna Hoen, and family resides with her.

Mrs. Maffei, mother of the well known butchers, contemplates a trip to San Jose where she will visit with relatives.

The June meeting of the Sonoma County Automobile Trade Association will be held at Boyes Springs.

Carl Liss and wife have sold out and gone to San Francisco to reside. Chester Weaver was injured while diving last Sunday at the Springs.

Gus Weyl for many years a popular employee of Sam Lewis underwent an operation recently in San Francisco.

Jack Main of Verano is at a local sanitarium suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis. Dr. Hays is in attendance.

Much anxiety is felt over the serious illness of the baby daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomson. The little one has never rallied from the erysipelas, and is now at the Crane sanitarium.

Press Davis for many years prominent in surveying and water circles of Sonoma county was over from Napa county this week greeting old friends. Mr. Davis has been filling a position of engineer of the ice plant at the Soldiers Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Ross Valley were a party of week end guests at the Walter Bandelshu home. In company with their host and hostess they attended the dance given by Captain Starley at Kenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Tierney this week entertained Oakland friends who were passing through our valley enroute to Humboldt County.

VINEBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weisshaar of San Francisco were exchanging greetings with friends in this vicinity on Sunday last.

Petaluma always wanted something that she never got, and now she wants something that she will never get; that is the division of the glorious "Old Bear Flag" county, Sonoma.

Peaceful Vineburg was somewhat surprised one day last week by the appearance of two revenue officers who alighted from the train and inquired the way to the post office. Although they were only a few feet from it could not read the "sign". Their early "education" must have been sadly neglected. They were hunting for a "still" but they didn't find it in the post office so they walked down Cypress Avenue till they arrived at Vineyard Villa and in a very brusque manner started to locate the "still" at that place. "Nothing doing." "More ignorance." But the day was warm and they were getting "dry", a state in which people in their official position are not supposed to get, but any old port in a storm, so they wandered back down Starlight Way, singing "Nobody knows how dry I am" until they landed at Vineburg Inn where a man was working in the garden. This gentleman was Mr. Enrico Forni, owner of the property, "Our Marshal".

Mr. Lewis Martin, the licensee being absent and the private residence being closed, they told Mr. Forni that they were going to break in and search the place and showed their "stars" but they could not "bluff" our Italian "Marshal" and in the afternoon they "sneaked" away on the south bound train "Sober But Viser Men." At last accounts they were still hunting the "still" and if they find it "Oh what a grand and glorious feeling!" Whoopee!

Mr. and Mrs. Dakan (nee Jeanette Harris) and two children are occupying the Granville Harris home on Broadway. Mrs. Dakan is the only daughter of Granville Harris the orchardist.

On Sunday afternoon last the dwelling of Mr. Peter Koopmann at the Hyde tract was totally destroyed by fire. The family barely escaped with their lives and lost everything but the clothes they wore. Mr. Koopmann has been an industrious and respected citizen of this vicinity for many years and has many friends who will stand by him in his hour of need.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Trautvetter of the Hyde tract moved to their new home near Sonoma on Saturday last.
